

Juliana Heyne
November 2023
Scenes from the Road

Landscape is the usual subject of my work, both rural and urban environments. Occasionally the focus is on specific aspects of those environments, as in Vacancy and Viaduct #3. Traveling many miles by car throughout the country, photographing and drawing along the way, is how I find subject matter to work with in the studio. It's important to me to have that separation from actual places before I work with the images.